Weddings cost a lot of money and require a lot of planning, and the pièce de résistance is the wedding cake. Some people go the traditional route, but with the abundance of cake cooking shows and competitions in the TV landscape, many people are flocking to wedding cakes that express their individual style and represent them as a couple. There are so many options that it doesn't even have to be cake anymore. Some couples have an ice cream or candy bar while others choose to add a bit of South Florida flavor by including local treats. Check out the list below and see which cakes and cake alternatives best show your wedding style. Related: Which Is Your Favorite Dessert?

Tiny Delights

12847 S.W. 42nd St.
Miami, FL 33175

Tiny Delights is an oh-so-cute bakery that offers decorated wedding cakes and specialty cupcakes and desserts. If you go the cupcake route, it makes a design so intricately adorned that it would be a sin to eat it. You can also order a dessert table that features brownies, cake pops, cupcakes, cookies and dessert shooters. If you really want to get creative, pick from one of Tiny Delights themes: The Moroccan theme features blue, pink and purple cake pops, cookies, cupcakes and dessert shots and the Mayfair

Wedding theme includes a wedding cake (optional), decorated cupcakes, cookies, cake pops, dessert shots and more. It's a bride and groom's dream come true.
